Dear Parents and Carers

Well ~ this is a very different letter to the ones that I normally write to you, because it's all about me!!

After a career spanning 40 years, I have finally taken the decision to retire. I shall be leaving the school at the end of Term 6, which will coincide with the end of this academic year.

During my years as class teacher and as Head Teacher here at Brookfield, I have relished the opportunities to develop the school so that we can offer the children the best possible education and experiences.

I have been able to introduce and implement many of my plans, though others may have been a little too extravagant for a school's budget!!

It is true to say that my role has not been without its challenges and my knowledge and skills have certainly grown along the way.

But, over the years, I have had the very good fortune to meet and work with many marvellous people ~ the children, their families and my dear colleagues ~ whose companionship and support I have truly treasured.

I head into the world of retirement with many happy memories and the knowledge that I have made a difference to the lives and futures of many young people ~ the very young people that hold responsibilities within the world today.

I am extremely proud to have been the Head Teacher at Brookfield and I thank you all for your support and partnership along the way.

Our governors will be meeting on Monday 6th March to make their decisions regarding the future leadership of the school. In due course, our Chair of Governors will write to inform you of their plans.

In the meantime, I remain
Yours most sincerely

M J Blewer
