YEAR 6 PRODUCTION

Tuesday 17th July 2018 – 6.30pm & Wednesday 18th July 2018 – 6.30pm

Year 6 proudly present their performance of Andrew Oxspring's Do you remember the first time?

Do you remember your first day at school? Or the first time you were sent to see the head? What about the first time you stood on the starting line clutching an egg and spoon? School is the place where we experience many 'firsts', and the most memorable can be re-lived through the songs and sketches in this hilarious, emotionally-charged musical, which promises to deliver a bucket-load of laughs...and tears! Whatever else you, your children, and their teachers remember about school, this is a production no-one will forget!

Pupils have been working extremely hard to perfect their performances and we hope you will be able to join us for one of the shows. Please complete the slip below and return to school by Wednesday 11th July if you would like tickets.

Initially, up to two tickets per child will be allocated per performance. Please indicate on the attached form should you wish to be contacted if there are extra tickets available, stating how many extra tickets you would like. Please be aware there will be no reserved seating at either performance, seats can be chosen on arrival.

To avoid disappointment, please return your request slip as soon as possible - remember these performances fill up extremely quickly.

Thank you in advance for your quick responses.
