

BROOKFIELD JUNIOR SCHOOL

Reading Afternoon

Friday 1st May 2015

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to those of you who have already given your time this year to come into school to hear children read, as well as those of you who have expressed a wish to come in during Terms 5 and 6. Children at Brookfield love the opportunity to read aloud to an adult, and it helps them not only to develop confidence with their reading and comprehension skills, but also with their writing.

On Tuesday 19th May at 3:10pm we will be hosting a reading afternoon in the school hall. This will be an opportunity for you to hear first-hand accounts of what it's like to listen to readers in school, by parents and carers already doing it. We will also be discussing questions to ask to help develop your child's reading and comprehension at home, as well as providing tea, coffee and biscuits while you put these ideas into practice, listening to your own child read.

Please let us know if you will be attending.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Mercanton
Literacy Leader
