

Brookfield Junior School
Aiming High

Our Purpose

To prepare and equip children to take part with confidence in a future world

Our Goal

To enable every child to succeed, be engaged in learning and be proud of their achievements and their school

Our Strategy

A broad based school that serves children from a range of backgrounds with different strengths and engages actively with the community

Providing children with a broad spectrum of opportunities to excel including academic, creative, sporting and social skills

Skilled and well-equipped staff who are able to support all children to achieve

Visible in the community with relationships within the school and with the wider community based upon mutual respect

Development of STEM expertise

Focus on writing

Promotion of extra-curricular activity in sport and the arts

Reinvigoration of the PTFA

Active marketing of the school in the community

Our Culture

Aiming High